Summary: LATE FILED - AUGMENTATION REQUIRED.

On August 17, 2001, Jeanne M. Sole, Regulatory Counsel for the California Independent System Operator ("ISO"), participated in an all party meeting with Cmmr. Wood in San Francisco. Also present were advisors of Cmmr. Wood; Irina Green, an ISO Grid Planning Engineer; and numerous additional parties. Referring to the Proposed Decision of ALJ Cooke mailed July 24, 2001 ("PD"), representatives of ISO argued that the PD errs in failing to approve a new substation in North Livermore and noted problems with the PD's reliance on the Las Positas substation to support load growth that would be served by the North Livermore substation. The representatives stated that the Commission should take timing considerations into account when considering an alternative that is unanimously opposed by the parties, and expressed concern about the failure of the PD to afford adequate consideration to ISO determinations of need.
